WILLIAMS-HAWK.

Miss Nellie B. Hawk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Hawk of Moline, and Roy R. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Williams, also of Moline, were united in marriage this morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of the Second Congregational church, Moline. Rev. R. S. Hanes performing the marriage ceremony. The bride wore an olive green chiffon broadcloth suit, with which she wore a sand-colored bodice with a hat of the same shade in an early spring model. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas. Her attendant was dressed in a putty-colored dress, with a flame-colored hat, and also wore a corsage. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, members of the families being the only guests. Daffodils were used to trim the table and rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left at noon today for a short visit in Chicago, and after March 1 will be at home in a new house which is ready for their occupancy. Mr. Williams is associated with his father in the brick contracting business.

BROADWAY YOUNG PEOPLE MEET.

The Young People's association of Broadway Presbyterian church held a short business and social meeting last evening at the church parlors. Plans were discussed for the annual meeting which will be held in April and matters of a routine nature were transacted. During the social time light refreshments were served.

BRIDGE AND TEA TO HONOR VISITOR.

Mrs. William Schulke at her home, 1611 Twenty-seventh street, Moline, entertained at a bridge and tea yesterday in honor of Miss Margarette Martin of Lake Forest. Three tables of bridge were played, the players pivoting, and prizes going to Mrs. Otis Howard, Mrs. Bruce King and Mrs. Earl Tarbox. Later 35 other friends came for tea, which was served in the dining room and where the hostess' mother, Mrs. A. H. McCandless, and Mrs. Harold White poured. Pink roses were used to trim all the rooms and add to the attractiveness of a beautiful home. Mrs. W. H. Whitlatch is entertaining this afternoon at a bridge party to honor Miss Martin.

W. W. CLUB WITH MRS. GALL.

Mrs. Louise Gall at her home, 2424 Seventh avenue, acted as hostess to the members of the W. W. club yesterday afternoon. The ladies were busy with their sewing and the hostess served a two-course lunch before the afternoon's close. Mrs. H. L. Dooler, 2402 Seventh avenue, will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks.

O. E. S. SEWING SESSION.

The O. E. S. sewing circle met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Amanda Nicholas, 2907 Seventh avenue, who with Mrs. Ivol Rife entertained. The brief business session was preceded by a vocal solo by Mrs. Edith Ulmeyer and followed by a delicious lunch served by the hostesses. The afternoon was spent in sewing carpet bags for one of the members and in general sociability. The next meeting March 2 will be an open one to be held at Masonic temple at which time a rare treat in the way of a program will be enjoyed. The refreshments will be in the hands of a committee.

M. & K.'s Coat Sale

Attracts Big Crowd

More Than 100 Garments Sold in Three Hours—Women Invited to Inspect Dresses Tomorrow.

DRESS SALE FRIDAY EVENT.

M. & K.'s three-hour coat sale this morning from 9 to 12 was another big merchandising event, even succeeding in the number of satisfied customers and volume of sales the suit sale of last Saturday. More than 100 coats were sold during those three hours. With the opening of the store the crowd of bargain seekers and bargain finders commenced to gather, and promptly at 9 o'clock, when the sale started, the number had reached an unusually high mark.

The large turnout in the early morning hours proved conclusively that women of the tri-city appreciate M. & K. bargains and value giving and realize the advantage of being on hand among the first in order to get the selection from high quality merchandise such as was sacrificed today at ridiculously low prices.

Announcement was made of a third "clean up" sale to be held this week. This is to be the three-hour sale of street, house and evening dresses to be held from 9 to 12 Friday morning. All wool cloth and silk dresses in figured and plain effects are to be divided into four lots and to be sold for $1, $2.50, $5 and $10.

Women are invited to visit M. & K.'s dress section any time tomorrow to inspect these wonderful dress values, but positively none will be sold before 9 Friday. This will afford many women an opportunity to judge of the genuineness of this remarkable M. & K. bargain offer. Look for the big advertisement in tomorrow's Argus for description of these dresses.

(Advt.)

Lutheran church was held in the club rooms last evening, the affair taking the form of a farmers' box social, the guests coming dressed in "rube" costumes. The boxes were auctioned off and after supper an informal program was given. Miss Beesle Bors played a piano number, Rudolph Hantz gave a reading and a dialogue "Wanted a Wife," was given by Walter Krafft, August Schroeder, Misses Anna Geiger and Katherine Otto. Delegates who attended the Walther league sessions in Joliet last Sunday reported informally on that convention, nine having attended from the local society.

DISCUSS RESPECT OF LAW.

M. E. Sweeney led the discussion on the subject, "Respect of Law," at the regular meeting of the Social Service Study club of the First Methodist church held last evening in the club rooms. He traced the subject from an historical point of view, practical application and down to the present city ordinances. The men decided to sit down to supper at each meeting promptly at 6:30 to have the paper of the evening at 7 and limit each speaker to three minutes who takes part in the discussion in order that the meeting may adjourn at 8 o'clock.

COLONEL BRACKETT CIRCLE SESSION.

A business session of the Colonel Brackett circle, ladies of the G. A. R., was held in Memorial hall in the court house yesterday afternoon, an unusually large number of the members attending. Two new members were received into the society and two applications were acted upon. Next Tuesday the society will conduct an all-day meeting at the home of Miss Mary Koch.

A. E. I. E. GIRLS' DANCE.

The A. E. I. E. girls conducted a very successful dancing party last evening at Odd Fellows hall, about 125 couples attending and enjoying the affair. The dance program was given by the Criterion orchestra.

CLASS HAS BOX SOCIABLE.

The class of young women taught by Miss Florence Weikand at South Park Presbyterian Sunday school conducted a box sociable last evening at the church. The affair was well attended and the boxes sold readily and a nice sum was realized for the church.

ENTERTAIN AT SECOND DINNER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kenpe at their home, 3932 Eighth avenue, entertained at the second of the series of dinner parties last evening. They had as guests 20 friends who were served with a four course dinner at tables decorated with flowering plants. The time after dinner was spent in informal sociability.

EVER READY CIRCLE.

Nineteen members of the Ever Ready circle of the First Baptist church were entertained in the home of Miss Zilpha Kluck, 1728 Eleventh avenue last evening. The girls discussed plans for a festival to be given during the early spring. The time was spent with games. Miss Juanita Kluck gave several readings and the hostess served a lunch before the evening's close. The March meeting will be with Miss Mildred Cardall, 420 Fifteenth street.

E. O. B. CLUB MEETING.

The E. O. B. club held a meeting last evening at the home of Miss Irene Ibrig, 1007 Eighteenth avenue. One new member, Miss Sarah Huxton, 1606 Twenty-ninth street, Moline, was initiated into the circle. The evening was spent playing games with music and fancy work and the hostess served a lunch. The club will be entertained in two weeks by Miss Dorothy Grisham, 2115 Fifteenth avenue, Moline.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS SATURDAY.

The February meeting of the Woman's club of Rock Island will be held Saturday afternoon at the Masonic temple. Mrs. Frederick Dew, former president of the Illinois Federation of Women's club and now chairman of the committee on resolutions of the national federation, will be present at the meeting and bring greetings. The entertainer of the afternoon will be Miss Madge Miller, contralto, who will give a program of songs. The president, Mrs. T. B. Davis, has asked that the members of the club remain after the program as her guests to meet Miss Miller.

COFFEES ARE SUCCESSFUL.

Six coffees were given by six members of the Ladies' Aid society of Zion Lutheran church yesterday at their respective homes. Mesdames Uma Bessell, A. E. Johnson, J. M. Anderson, O. P. Olson, N. P. Boquist and Mrs. N. J. Foreberg entertained. The affairs were well attended and very successful, the time being passed in sociability and informal programs were enjoyed. The affairs were successful likewise from a financial standpoint.

OKOHI CLUB WITH MR. AND MRS. DONOVAN.

Okohi club members were entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donovan, 2027 Ninth street. Mrs. J. P. Slemmon, Charles Donovan and Mrs. Charles Tonn were the winners of prizes in the games. A lunch was served in the dining room after the games where valentines were used as place cards and as decorations on the table. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tonn will entertain the club in two weeks.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson I am a girl of 21 years. Three years ago I was engaged to be married and six weeks before the appointed time I found out that he rightfully belonged to another. I told him that I could never marry him, knowing that another had a claim on him. He then said that although I would be constantly in his thoughts, he would do his duty as I had bid him. He married her and they are very unhappy, but no more unhappy than I am. The longer that I am away from him the more I love him. Have I done right since we are all so unhappy?

Now he is very sick and the doctor says that he has only a short time to live. At times when raging in fever he constantly calls my name and asks me to come to him before he dies. The doctor told his wife to send for me, but she refused, saying that she hated the very sound of my name. She forgets what she owes to me and I have never uttered a word against her name.

The doctor called on me and told me all, saying to call on him as a friend and not say anything of what he told her. What would you do if you were in my place? He is more to me in this hour than ever before. I can't let him go without seeing him.

HEART BROKEN VIRGIE.

My dear girl, follow the doctor's advice; go to him as if the visit were your own idea. If his wife refuses to let you see him, have a plain talk with her and let her know what she owes you. You ought to be considered. You did a very noble thing, and if the outcome was unhappiness, you were certainly not to blame.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and I am keeping company with a boy the same age.

(1) Are we too young to keep company? (2) How late should he stay when he calls? (3) How often should a boy call? (4) Should I send post cards to another boy? (5) Should the boy take the girl's arm or the girl take the boy's arm? (6) Should we wear one another's ring?

BLUE EYES.

(1) My dear girl, you are not too young to go with a boy, but you are too young to be serious. (2) 10:30. (3) Not often than twice a week.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

FOUR EGGLASS CAKES.

Egglass Cake—One-half cup butter, 1-1/3 cups sugar, one cup milk, one cup raisins or currants, three cups flour, one-third teaspoon salt, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon mixed spices. Bake in slow oven one hour.

Egglass Banana Cake—One and one-half cups sugar, one cup sweet milk, one tablespoon butter, pinch of salt, two teaspoons baking powder, 1-1/2 cups flour. Bake in layers. Make a white frosting: Boil one cup milk and 1-1/3 cups sugar until it thickens; beat; add vanilla and spread. Take three large bananas, slice and spread between layers and on top.

Egglass Fruit Cake—One cup brown sugar, one tablespoon lard, one-half teaspoon each of nutmeg, cinnamon and cloves ground, pinch of salt, one cup buttermilk or sour milk, 1-1/2 cups flour, one teaspoon baking soda dissolved in hot water, one-half cup English walnuts, one-third cup raisins and large piece of pineapple. Chop all fruit and nuts fine, dredge with flour and add to cake. Bake in loaf in moderate oven one hour.

Egglass Spice Cake—One cup light brown sugar, one tablespoon butter, one-half teaspoon each of ground nutmeg, cinnamon and cloves, pinch of salt, one cup buttermilk or sour milk, one teaspoon baking soda dissolved in hot water, two cups flour (currants may be added if liked). Bake in loaf, layer or in gem pans. This will make from 16 to 18 drop cakes.

SIMPLE HOME REMEDIES.

For Constipation—Take one pound each of dates, prunes, figs and raisins, and one ounce senna leaves. Mix and put through food chopper. Dose: Piece size of hickorynut. This packed into a fruit jar will keep any length of time.

For Tender or Sweaty Feet—Use warm salt water; half cup salt to a gallon of water. Feet will soon be well.

For Colds—One-half cup goose grease, teaspoon ammonia, teaspoon turpentine, teaspoon kerosene oil, teaspoon camphor. Mix well; apply on throat and chest. Cover with woolen cloth.

If these directions are followed, your cakes, cookies and biscuits will be as white as thought made with baking powder and no one will know from the flavor that soda was used.
